GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH

EXCISE AND TAXATION DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 14th November, 1969

No. 14-42/68-E&T.—With reference to Himachal Pradesh Excise and Taxation Department Notification of even number, dated the 1st March, 1969 and in exercise of the powers conferred by section 24 of the Himachal Pradesh Motor Spirit (Taxation of Sales) Act, 1968 and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator), Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act:—

THE HIMACHAL PRADESH MOTOR SPIRIT (TAXATION OF SALES) RULES, 1969

1. Title and commencement.—(1) These rules shall be called the Himachal Pradesh Motor Spirit (Taxation of Sales) Rules, 1969.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) “the Act” means the Himachal Pradesh Motor Spirit (Taxation of Sales) Act, 1968;

(b) “licence” means the licence granted under the provisions of the said Act;

(c) “manager” or “agent” means the person expressly or impliedly authorised by the retail dealer to act as his manager or agent for all or any of the purposes of these rules.

3. Superintendence and control of the Administration under the Act.—

(1) (a) Subject to the control of Government and unless Government shall by notification otherwise direct, the Excise and Taxation Commissioner shall superintend the administration and the collection of the tax leviable under the Act.

(b) Subject to the general control and superintendence of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner and unless Government shall by notification otherwise direct, the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner shall assist the Excise and Taxation Commissioner in carrying out all or any of the purposes of the Act.

(c) Subject as aforesaid and to the control of the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner and unless Government by notification otherwise direct, the Petrol Taxation Officer shall control all other officers empowered under the Act in his district.

(2) The Petrol Taxation Officer is charged with the duty of carrying out the provisions of the Act subject to the control and direction of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner and Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner and the orders of the Government.

4. Application for Licence.—(a) A person desiring to obtain a licence authorising retail sales of motor spirit shall submit an application in Form P.A., appended to these rules, to the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which his place or places of business is/are situated.

(b) A firm or company, the business of which is mainly wholesale and which is desirous of obtaining a licence authorising retail sales of motor spirit in more than one district, shall submit an application in Form P.B., appended to these rules, to the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which its head office of business in Himachal Pradesh is situated.

(c) For a licence in Form P.3, an application in Form P.B.B., appended to these rules, shall be made by the Chief Engineer, Public Works, Himachal Pradesh to the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which his head office is for the time being situated.

5. Grant of Licence.—(a) A licence in Form P.1. appended to these rules, authorising retail sales of motor spirit may be granted by the Petrol Taxation Officer on payment of a fee of rupees twenty-five.

(b) (i) A licence in Form P.2, appended to these rules, authorising retail sales of motor spirit in more than one district, may, with the prior permission of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, be granted by the Petrol Taxation Officer, to any firm or company applying under the provisions of rule 4 (b), on payment of a fee of rupees twenty-five.

(ii) An ex-officio licence in Form P.3, appended to these rules, authorising retail sales of motor spirit to officers of the Himachal Pradesh Government only at the Irrigation Headworks in the Himachal Pradesh may, with the previous approval of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, be granted by the Petrol Taxation Officer, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works, Himachal Pradesh under the provisions of clause (c) of rule 4 on payment of a fee of rupees two.

(c) All licences shall be held subject to the conditions therein set forth and to the provisions of the Act and of any rules from time to time made under the Act.

(d) A copy of these rules will be given free with each licence.

6. Amendment of Licence.—(a) Any licence granted under these rules may be amended by the Petrol Taxation Officer granting such licence; provided that the amendment shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, or of these rules.

(b) A retail dealer who desires to have his licence amended, shall submit it to the Petrol Taxation Officer with an application stating the nature of the amendments required and the reasons therefor.

7. Renewal of Licence.—(a) A licence may be renewed by the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which the original licence was granted on payment of a fee of rupees ten:

Provided that the licence granted in Form P.3, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, Himachal Pradesh shall be renewed on a payment of rupee one.

(b) Applications for the renewal of licences in Form P.1 and P.2 shall be in Forms P.A. and P.B., respectively, and those for the renewal of a licence in Form P.3 shall be in Form P.B.B, appended to these rules. Such applications shall be made not less than 30 days before the date on which the licence expires:

Provided that the Petrol Taxation Officer may entertain such applications after the prescribed period on payment of such late fee not exceeding Rs. 50 as he may deem fit.

8. Refusal of Licence.—A Petrol Taxation Officer refusing to grant, amend or renew a licence, shall record his reasons for such refusal in writing and a copy of the order shall be given to the applicant on payment of a fee of one rupee.

9. Suspension or cancellation and restoration of Licence.—(a) A Petrol Taxation Officer suspending or cancelling a licence under sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Act, shall record his reasons for so doing in writing and a copy of the order shall be given to the holder of the licence on payment of a fee of one rupee.

(b) A licence suspended or cancelled by a Petrol Taxation Officer may be restored by that officer on payment of a fee not exceeding one hundred rupees.

10. Transfer of the Licence and partnership.—(a) Every licence granted under these rules shall be deemed to have been granted to the retail dealer, company, firm or partnership named therein:

Provided that, where a licence is granted in the name of the several partners while trading in the name of the firm, it shall, subject to the provisions of rule 11, expire if the partnership of firm is dissolved or if any one such partner, for any reason, ceases to be a partner therein and provided further that an ex-officio licence in Form P.3, issued to the Chief Engineer, Public Works, Himachal Pradesh shall by virtue of his office, be deemed to have been held by whosoever is the Chief Engineer, Public Works, Himachal Pradesh for the time being.

(b) No licences shall be sold or transferred nor shall any retail dealer to whom licence has been granted by name, enter into any partnership in connection with the business for which the licence is granted, without the written permission of the Petrol Taxation Officer, who shall, when granting such permission, amend the licence accordingly.

11. Procedure on death or disability of the retail dealer.—If a retail dealer dies or becomes insolvent or physically or mentally incapable or incurs any legal disability, the person carrying on the business of such retail dealer, shall not be liable to any penalty under section 10 of the Act if he applies for a new licence in his own name within a period of 30 days from the date of the death or physical or mental incapability or legal disability of the former licensee.

12. Change of place of business.—If a retail dealer changes his place or places of business, he shall, within 14 days of his doing so, inform the Petrol Taxation Officer and the necessary amendment shall be made in his licence, free of charge, if the Petrol Taxation Officer is satisfied that the retail dealer is duly licensed for the storage of dangerous petroleum under the Petroleum Act, 1934 at his new place or places of business:

Provided that, in the case of a retail dealer licensed in Form P.1, if the new place of business is in a different district to that of the old place of business, the retail dealer shall obtain a new licence from the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district to which he has removed, after surrendering his old licence, for cancellation to the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which he was formerly licensed.

13. Loss of Licence.—Where a licence granted under these rules is lost or accidentally destroyed, a duplicate copy may be granted on payment of a fee of five rupees.

14. Production of Licence on demand.—(a) Every person holding or acting under a licence granted under these rules shall produce it or an authenticated copy of it at the place or places of business to which the licence applies, when called upon to do so by an officer duly empowered in this behalf.

(b) Copies of any licence, may, for the purpose of sub-rule (a), be authenticated free of charge by the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which the licence was issued.

15. Retail dealers to deposit the amount of tax due and to furnish monthly return of sales in the prescribed forms within the specified period.—(a) Before the submission of the monthly return required by sub-rule (b) or (c), every retail dealer licensed in Form P.1, 2, or P.3, shall deposit under challan in Form P.M. in quadruplicate in any treasury or sub-treasury or the branch of the State Bank of India, the amount of tax payable under section 3 of the Act on all retail sales of motor spirit as shown in the monthly return:

Provided that deposit in respect of retail sales made in each district shall be made under separate challans.

(b) Every retail dealer licensed in Form P.1, shall prepare or cause to be prepared a return in Form P.C., appended to these rules, of all motor spirit sold during the preceding month and shall lodge the said return with the Petrol Taxation Officer of the districts in which his licence has been issued, within 21 days of the close of the month to which it relates.

(c) Every retail dealer licensed in Form P.2 or P.3, shall prepare or cause to be prepared separate return in Form P.D., appended to these rules, of all motor spirit sold in retail during the preceding month in each district and shall lodge the said returns with the Petrol Taxation Officer of the district in which the sale took place within 30 days of the close of the month to which it relates.

(d) Every retail dealer licensed in Form P.1, P. 2 or P. 3 shall subscribe at the foot of the monthly return, a declaration duly signed by himself or by his duly authorised manager or agent, to the effect that the particulars set out therein are to the best of his knowledge and belief true, accurate and complete.

(e) Every monthly return submitted under sub-rule (b) or (c) above shall be accompanied by the treasury or the State Bank receipt or other evidence of the payment of tax having been made in the manner prescribed under sub-rule (a) above.

(f) The Petrol Taxation Officer, after satisfying himself that the payment of the amount shown in the monthly return has duly been made, shall cause to be issued a certificate in Form P.E., appended to these rules and have it delivered to the retail dealer or his authorised manager or agent submitting the return. Number and date of the certificate issued shall also be recorded at the foot of the return.

16. Procedure in case of non-payment of the Tax.—(a) If the amount of the tax due has not been deposited within the time prescribed under rule 15, the Petrol Taxation Officer shall cause a notice in Form P.E., appended to these rules, to be issued and served on the retail dealer, requiring him to make payment of the unpaid amount of tax within 10 days of the date of service of the said notice.

(b) Every notice issued under sub-rule (a) may be given to the retail dealer at his ordinary place or places of business or if the retail dealer be not found, on the said premises, to any person in the employ of the retail dealer, who may be found upon the said premises, or if no such person be found, the same may be left at the said premises or affixed in a conspicuous position upon some building or erection in the occupation of the retail dealer.

(c) If the tax is not paid within the time fixed by the notice issued under sub-rule (a), the Petrol Taxation Officer, may after calling upon the retail dealer to show cause, proceed to impose a penalty under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

17. Retail dealers to maintain registers in the prescribed Forms, inspection Note-books and other records.—(a) Every retail dealer licensed in Form P.1, shall maintain at each place of business a correct, accurate and up-to-date account of his stocks and daily sales of motor spirit in a register in Form P.G., appended to these rules. All delivery challans or purchase invoices and other evidences of purchase and certificates of payment in Form P.E., and other evidences of payment of the tax should be preserved by the retail dealer for one year.

(b) Every retail dealer licensed in Form P.2 or P.3, shall maintain, at his head office of business in the State, a correct, accurate and up-to-date account of retail sales of motor spirit in a register in Form P.H., appended to these rules. True copies of all invoices in connection with the retail supply of motor spirit and other evidence of retail sales affected and certificates of payment in Form P.E. and other evidences of payment of the tax should be preserved by the retail dealer for one year.

(c) Entries in the registers may be made in English, Hindi or Urdu but only English numerals shall be used.

(d) Every retail dealer shall keep an inspection note-book in which officers empowered under the Act may record their remarks.

18. Retail dealer to furnish certain information.—Every retail dealer shall furnish fully and correctly any information in his possession that he is required to furnish in connection with any purpose of the Act or of these rules, by any officer specially empowered under section 15 of the Act.

19. Compounding of offences.—(a) The Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner exercising his powers of compounding offences under section

19 of the Act, shall cause a notice in Form P.J, appended to these rules, to be issued and served on the offender, requiring him to make payment of the amount fixed as composition fee, within 10 days of the receipt of the said notice. If the said amount is not paid within the period specified, the offender shall be prosecuted for commission of an offence under the Act.

(b) A Magistrate, while trying a person accused of an offence under the Act, may with the approval of the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner, accept the amount fixed as composition fee even after the prosecution has started.

20. Payment of Tax not levied in full or erroneously refunded.—When tax less than the amount of tax due has been levied through inadvertence, error or misconstruction on the part of the Petrol Taxation Officer, or through misstatement as to the quantity of motor spirit sold, on the part of the retail dealer or, when any such tax, after having been levied has been, owing to any such cause, erroneously refunded, the person chargeable with the tax not levied in full or the person to whom such refund has erroneously been made, shall pay the deficiency or repay the amount paid to him in excess, on demand being made within one year from the close of the month in respect of which that tax should have been levied or from the date of making the refund. If the tax is not paid within thirty days of the date of making the demand, the Petrol Taxation Officer shall proceed against the defaulter in the manner laid down in sub-rule (c) of rule 16.

21. Appeals and revisions.—(a) Every appeal under sub-section (1) of section 22 of the Act shall be presented within one month from the date of the order appealed against and shall be accompanied by the order appealed against the original or by an authenticated copy of such order, unless the omission to produce such order or copy thereof is explained to the satisfaction of the appellate authority. The time spent in obtaining an authenticated copy of such order shall be excluded from the period of limitation prescribed above.

(b) The appeal may be sent by post or may be presented to the officer concerned or to such other officer as he may appoint in this behalf, by the party concerned by a recognised agent or legal practitioner.

22. Powers.—The powers conferred by section 15 of the Act shall be exercised by every officer of the Excise and Taxation Department not below the rank of Inspector within the area for which he is appointed.

PENALTIES

23. Punishment for the breach of rules, for refusing, neglecting, or failing to furnish information and for furnishing false information.—(a) Persons convicted of the breach of any of these rules render themselves liable to punishment of fine, under sub-section (3) of section 24 of the Act, which may extend to one hundred rupees, and, where the breach is a continuing one, with further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first day during which the breach has continued.

(b) Persons, who are bound under these rules to furnish information by submitting returns and maintaining registers in the prescribed forms, preserving relevant records or in any other manner, render themselves liable to punishment, under section 176 of the Indian Penal Code, if they refuse, neglect, or without lawful excuse, fail to furnish the required information in the prescribed manner.

(c) Any persons, who furnish information, which they know or have reason to believe to be false, render themselves liable to punishment under section 177 of the Indian Penal Code.

24. The Himachal Pradesh Motor Spirit (Taxation of Sales) Rules, 1964 as in force in the areas comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966 and the Punjab Motor Spirit (Taxation of Sales) Rules, 1939 as in force in the areas transferred to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966, are hereby repealed.
